OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. 'All our learned societies should sub scribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) The China Review * * * * has an excellent table of contents. - Celestial Empire.

'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers '- Celestial Empire. This number contains several articles of interest and value."-North-China Herald.

'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard o estion, and altogether forms a very interesting and resdable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Publing, from 1841 to "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'-North China A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise. - Chrysunthemum. The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes paper of some length entitled."The Rm. peror Chang, founder of the Chinese Kmpire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices of New Books and s number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Bornes and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. - H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-

The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended t occupy a position, as regards China and th neighbouring countries, some what simils to that which has been filled in India by th Calcutta Review. The great degree of at tention that has been bestowed of late year upon the investigation of Chinese literature antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of inform ation, raudering some such channel of pul licity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interes may fairly be looked or from the member of the foreign consular services, the Chines Customs' corps, and the missionary body among whomes high degree of Chines scholarship is now assiduously cultivated and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly preditable to their respective authors. Some translations from Chinese novels an plays are marked by both accuracy and fresh ness of style; and an account of the career the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Besides notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that Notes! and Queries are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may swoke a similar degree of literary seal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Reviers may receive the support peccessor to insure may receive the support becomery to insura
